

PETRA EXTENSION

Day Twelve—Saturday, June 15th
*GARDEN TOMB*CITY WALLS*DRIVE TO PETRA*

After breakfast and morning at the Garden Tomb, and a little free time, we will board the bus for Jordan. Crossing into Jordan at the Allenbi Bridge near Jericho, we will meet our bus and English speaking Jordanian guide who will spend the next days with us while we are in Jordan and at Petra. After winding our way into the village of Petra, we will arrive at our beautiful hotel, the Petra Movenpick, for dinner and a restful overnight.

Day Thirteen —Sunday, June 16th
PETRA, THE ROSE-RED CITY

After an incredible breakfast at the Movenpick, we will walk, ride or take a carriage down the famous Petra Siq. The day will be spent at Petra, you can take in as much or as little as you want. Once we have entered the park, your visit can be as guided as you like, our Jordanian guide will be happy to walk with the group or if you like to explore on your own, feel free to do that. Dinner and overnight at the Movenpick Hotel.

Day Fourteen —Monday, June 17th
DRIVE BACK TO ISRAEL AND TEL AVIV

After enjoying breakfast at the Movenpick, we will board our bus and drive south through Jordan on the King's Highway. Arriving later in the morning at the border crossing near Eilat on the Red Sea in Southern Israel. Once we have entered Israel, we will board our Israeli bus and begin the drive to Tel Aviv. On the way we will travel through the Judean Desert, and visit several sites, including the Valley of Elah where David fought Goliath. Also, near that valley we will view Tel Gath, the home of Goliath and the Philistines. Driving through central Israel we will cross through the Ramon Makhtesh. A spectacular crater NOT formed by a meteor or some type of water erosion or volcanic eruption. This geological feature is rather the largest “erosion cirque” created 220 million years ago. Finally, before going to the airport we will have an Israeli dinner in Jaffa on the Mediterranean Sea, the place where Jonah ran from God into the whale, and Peter received word about the Gentiles. Then onto the airport for our 1:00 AM flight to LAX.

Day Fifteen —Tuesday, June 18th

Arrive in LAX at 6:30 AM
